

Position Name: Project Manager / 项目经理

Address: Beijing, China

Vacancy Number: 2

Responsibilities:

The Project Manager will be responsible for the management of major multidiscipline engineering studies and projects associated with engineering, construction and procurement. The incumbent will be responsible for the management of teams of Discipline Engineers, Construction Engineer, Procurement Engineer, Subcontractors involved in the development of major projects from conceptual design through to detail design, construction procurement and commissioning.

Requirements:

- 8+ years work experience in project management of Chemical, Petro-Chemical, Light Industry or Pharmaceutical Projects.
- Familiar with international engineering and project management systems.
- Have experience in Design, Procurement or Construction Management and be familiar with Cost, Quality, and Schedule Control.
- Have strong previous project management experience on foreign funded projects.
- Have experience on client interface and project team management experience.
- Fluent speaking and writing in English or French.
- Design Institute work experience and Site Construction Management work experience is preferred.